You should never buy instagram followers most of these accounts will either be bots fake accounts or disinterested people who have let their accounts be used in return for payment none of these accounts will look at your posts or participate in any genuine engagement over time most of these accounts will disappear from your followers list either because they have unfollowed you or because instagram will have spotted them and removed them from the platform

Getting more instagram followers and likes can help promote your awareness the more instagram followers and likes you have the more potential customers the instagram algorithm will send your profile to as you continue to build your instagram awareness your instagram followers and likes will keep growing too

As influencer marketing becomes more popular almost mainstream influencer selection becomes even more pivotal to a campaign s success however the main prerequisite for a campaign to work is that it uses genuine influencers to spread the brand s message there are unscrupulous people online who like the reputation and perks of being considered an influencer without doing the work needed to reach that status moreover some companies have had their campaigns come unstuck because of these pseudo influencers

Don t think higher is necessarily better however an engagement rate of 10 percent plus could be suspicious if you see engagement rates that high the influencer could be using artificial engagement techniques such as being part of an engagement group influencers work together commenting and liking each other s posts to boost their statistics

Conclusion

The best way to find out if someone has bought their audience and has fake followers is to use a fake follower audit tool such as ours it s a great way to find out instantly the follower quality score of an influencer s audience this credibility score gives you a good idea of whether the account is followed by real persons or bots
